Yankee Lobster
Fish Market

A Lobster Tail

The Zanti family, owners of Yankee Lobster Fish Market, have been in the fishing business for many generations. From the little fishing village of Augusta, Italy, Guiseppe Zanti, Sr., in 1898, ventured to America seeking the fertile fishing grounds that he had heard about from brave fishermen that had gone before. He spent several decades fishing from Georges Bank to the Gulf of Alaska.

Several generations later, the Zanti family is still bringing you the finest catch from the seas around the world. We are here to provide all your seafood needs now and for generations to come. Feel free to call us for any special seafood product you need or may be looking for.
